CONCLUSION OF THE PILOT TESTING

During last semester, FACTIVE partners worked on the completion of the FACTIVE IO5, the Compedium of Pilot Testing Reports. This document is one of the final outputs developed by the consortium. It gathers the reports all partners made according their diverse experiences during the implementation they carried out of the FACTIVE flipped classroom methodology.

It compares all the experiences and highlights the most relevant aspects of each one of them as well as give advices on the topic.

Furthermore, the consortium has developed an extra output, just to give presence and tangibility to the expertise generated during this process.

Specifically, a compilatory video that brings together the students and teachers testimonials has been edited and launched.

FACTIVE COMMUNITY PRACTICE

The FACTIVE community practice is an open space where stakeholders interested on flipped classroom methodology share knowledge, events and interact to create synergies and amplify and improve this modern concept of education.

The Factive Community Practice is the IO6 of the Project and it has kept on growing since its beginning. It consists in a group in the professional Linkedin platform and it counts with more than 150 experts.

The main topic of the discussions were focused on the conclusion of the last outputs, IO3, IO5 and IO6.

During the meeting several management, quality and dissemination aspects were presented and discussed by all partners. Especially regarding the respective parts that have to be concluded in the following days and weeks, when the project is over.

OBJECTIVES ACHIEVED

During this 2 years of intense work, all partners agreed that the internal communication was smooth, that the partners trusted and helped each other and that the coordination has been very accurate. The partnership believes the outputs generated are endorsed with high quality, but beyond that, the synergies, feeling and intention to collaborate in future projects together as European citizens is also remarkable.
